Welcome to the April 2020 newsletter! Here at DistanceLearningCentre.com we have been working hard to make sure your studies go as smoothly as possible through these quite extraordinary times.

We want to give a big welcome to all our new starters over the past two months! This is our newsletter that gives you some news and updates about what is going on with DistanceLearningCentre.com, our staff and our learners.It is usually issued every month although there has been a slight delay in recent newsletters whilst we have focused on clarifying implications arising from the Coronavirus pandemic for all our learners.

Coronavirus Updates

There will likely have been a lot of information being sent to you about updates and changes that have occurred due to the Coronavirus.

We have been working hard with QAA and our awarding bodies for all our qualifications to provide you with the best service we can at this time.

We have been keeping our Coronavirus News page on our website as up to date as possible, and this is full of useful information that can help you understand any changes to your studies.

We will also be going through some of the important dates and changes in this newsletter.

June Moderation 2020

A big congratulations to everyone who has made it this far, and is close to moderation!

We now have two moderations this summer. Many students came under QAA guidance for the predicted grades model but for some students who did not meet the criteria for this model we have a second moderation confirmed in June so that you can continue to complete your assessments and moderate when you planned to.

Further guidance about our normal moderation process and deadlines for all certifications can be found on your learner account.

Student finance

If you are starting university or college in 2020, the deadline to apply for student finance is May 2020.

If you don't apply before this date you might not get your money in time for the start of your course.
It's quick and easy to apply online at GOV.UK

If you have already started your application online, please log back into your account now and finish it before the deadline.

Facebook Group

We've seen a big rise in the number of learner's joining our Facebook Group- which is great!
